Dear Chet:

On my return from the west this morning I found a letter from the young man - A. Brandt Reed, the new camp director for Pinnacle, whom I told you about last week.

Attached is copy of his letter of the 18th.

Just some more delay. Apparently the Albany Bible School is still without a president. I have no way of knowing, of course, what happened over last week-end when Mr. Howard Cleveland, their prospective new president, visited at Albany. From the tone of Mr. Reed's letter, there is a decision to make - very likely Mr. Cleveland's.

At any rate, Mr. Reed's letter keeps the door open pending the decision of the new president. I will contact him by Friday of next week and if by that time we cannot get a decision, I think we should abandon our efforts and get going with the La Grange site. This sort of thing could drag along interminably.

I will be away from Tuesday to Friday morning of next week. Meantime, Frank York will probably be on the way back from Lake Louise and we will talk it over further Saturday.

Cordially yours,

Ernest A. Barbeau

Dear Mr. Barbeau:

In reply to your letter of June 10th, I have further considered our proposition to you for the use of Camp Pinnacle property as a small broadcast transmitter site.

I had discussed it with some of the board members individually, but as we have nothing officially to offer to date, I am writing this letter personally, to advise you that I will not be at Camp this week as I had previously hoped and the decision on the new president for the school is still pending.

I expect to be at Camp by the second half of next week, however, and by that time, may possibly have something more definite from the Board.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) A. Brandt Reed, Director

Dear Mr. Reed:

On my return from the west this morning I found your letter of the 18th.

It had been arranged for me to contact you the end of this week for decision on our proposed transmitter site at Camp Pinnacle and that was one reason for having rushed back to my office.

I will be away from the city until Friday of next week when I will drive to Camp Pinnacle to see you, hopeful by that time that your board will have decided favorably. In any event, I understand that you will be prepared to make my client a counter proposition to the ones we have previously submitted if your board appears disposed to go along with the idea.

Thanking you again for your continued interest in the proposition and suggesting that you kindly let me know in event that next Friday may be in conflict with your own plans, I am,

Very sincerely,

Ernest A. Barbeau
